THE AMERICAN SOCIOLOGICAL SOCIETY

The third annual meeting of the American Sociological Society will be held at Atlantic City, N. J., from December 28 to 31, inclusive, in conjunction with the annual meetings of the American Economic Association, the American Statistical Association, and the American Association for Labor Legislation.

The Sociological Society will hold seven sessions, one of which will be a joint meeting with the Economic Association and another of which will be a joint meeting with the American Statistical Association. All seven sessions, however, will be devoted to a discussion of some aspect of the general topic "The Family in Modern Society." This general topic has been divided as follows:

1. The Relation of the Family to Social Change (President's address).
2. How Do Home Conditions React upon the Family?
3. Are Modern Industry and City Life Unfavorable to the Family?
4. How Does the Woman Movement React upon the Family?
5. Has the Freer Granting of Divorce Proved an Evil?
6. How far Should the State Go in Individualizing the Members of the Family?
7. How far Should Family Property Be Conserved and Encouraged?

Detailed programmes may be had by applying to the secretary, Professor C. W. A. Veditz, George Washington University, Washington, D. C.
